

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, July 31. 1705.

From the Harlem Courant, dated August 1.

Naples, July 7.

A Genouese Galley is arriv'd here, with a great Deal of Baggage and some of the Domestick Servants of the Marquis de Bedmar, who himself came hither the 5th Instant with a Train of 40 Coaches and a great Retinue. The Duke of Popoli has embark'd the Volunteers who have entred themselves into the King's Service under his Command, and 160 other Soldiers, for Spain. A Regiment of 8 new rais'd Companies, is in readiness to embark for Spain on the Galleys of Sardinia; and we expect here 700 Men from Calabria. 8 Turkish Vessels that are now in the Gulph of Catanzano, have taken 2 Tartans. The Equestrian Statue of King Philip V. is brought into the Square of Jesus to be set up on a Pedestal prepar'd there.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated July 24.

Rome, June 27. The general Chapter for the Election of a General of the reform'd Franciscans, being to be of right held this time in turn, in some City of Spain, according to Agreement between the Empire and the Crown of Spain; the Emperor's Ambassador has desir'd the Pope to Summons the said General Chapter to assemble in a neutral Place; that the Franciscans Subjects of the Emperor may assist in it: But the Ambassador of Spain has represented by Order of the King his Master, that his Majesty will not allow of holding the Chapter out of his Dominions; and the Pope has given Direction that the ancient Rule and Custom shall be observ'd, and circular Letters are issued accordingly. The Pope has granted several Favours to the Town of Urbino, the Place of his Nativity; the principal of which are, the Assignment of the Revenue of 2 Abbeys to enable the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Urbino to pay 24000 Crowns which they owe; the Augmentation of the Revenue of each Canon of the said Church 60 Crowns per Annum; and a Decree, which his Holiness has establish'd to Perpetuity, that one of the Auditors of the Rota of Macerata shall always be a Native of Urbino.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 28.

Basel, July 19. The Marquis of Beretti Landi arriving some Days ago at Baden, where the General Diet of the Helvetic Body is held, made new Efforts to prevail with the Protestant Cantons to acknowledge him for Ambassador of Spain; and in order thereto, omitted neither Flattery nor Menaces; But all to no purpose. Mean time the Roman Catholick Cantons resenting that the Protestants will not follow their Example in owning this Minister, have on a sudden chang'd their Language touching the Affair of Neukirch, and have declar'd to the Protestant Cantons, that they conceiv'd that Affair to be purely a civil Case, and that it ought to be decided by the Plurality of Voices of the Cantons Protectors of Turgow. 'Tis uncertain yet what the Cantons of Zurich will resolve upon this; but 'tis probable they will maintain by plain Force the Protection they have already formally given to the Protestants that frequented the Church of Neukirch.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 30.

Basel, July 23. The Cantons of Zurich and Bern are absolutely resolv'd to renew the Alliance with the Republick of Venice, and are about to settle some Points that are in Dispute in order to the intire Conclusion of that Affair. The said Republick of Venice desires no Levy of Troops of them, but only a Renovation of the ancient Friendship between them. The Country about Doneschingen is very much alarm'd, upon the Motions of some French Parties in the Black-Forrest; and thereupon the Militia of those Parts are drawing together.

Falmouth, July 26. Yesterday put in here the Middleburg, a Privateer of Zealand, from cruising, and brought in as Prize the St. Joseph of and for St. Malo, laden with Sugar from St. Domingo.

Plymouth, July 27. Yesterday came in from the Westward Her Majesty's Ship the Le Firme. To Day came in Sir George Bing in Her Majesty's Ship the Triumph, and Sir John Jennings in the Royal Ann, with 17 Sail more of Men of War, from cruising off of Ushant.

Yarmouth, July 27. Yesterday Morning sail'd from hence 14 laden Colliers, under Convoy of the Boneta to the Southward: And this Evening about 300 Sail of laden Colliers are passing through our Roads and on the Back of our Sands, for the River, under Convoy of 3 Men of War.

London, July 31.

In the Expedition Pacquet-Boat from Lisbon, (mention'd in Yesterday's Courant to be arriv'd,) came over the Marquis of Winchester, Colonel Dobbins, and Captain Crofts.

The Assizes at Maidstone ended on Friday last, when the Soldier who murder'd Mr. MacLennan between Sheerness and Queenborough was found guilty and condemn'd to Death; but the Major of the Fort of Sheerness
